TONY CURTIS AND KIRK DOUGLAS star in "The Vikings," current screen fare at the Radium Drive-in theater. Companion feature is "Wasp Women." Features run tonight and tomorrow night.

'Parenthood' Doctor's Topic

Warren Moe, M.D., obstetrician on the staff of the Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital, will speak on Labor and Delivery at the first meeting in the new series on parentcraft, which opens Tuesday, at 8 p.m., at the American Institute of Family Relations, 5287 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 27.

Designed for expectant fathers and mothers, this meeting is the first of four at which motion pictures and discussions are featured.

Exercise classes in preparation for childbirth will start at the Institute Aug. 8 and 10. These classes are also held in Pasadena, South Gate, and Redondo Beach. Further information is available by calling HO 5-5131.

Recruiter Tells of Opportunities

"Young women should formulate carefully plans for the future and choose a career that will provide satisfaction to themselves and great value to their community and nation." This is the advice of Sgt. Duane K. Hetter, local Air Force recruiter, who said there are over 500 different job opportunities available in the Air Force.

"Women of the Air Force handle highly technical and important operations," he said. The fields they work in are intelligence, photomapping, air traffic control and warning, flight hostess, radio and radar maintenance, budgeting and accounting and machine accounting.

Requirements for enlisting are: young women must be between the ages of 18 and 27, unmarried and high school graduates or have successfully completed a general education development test.

Further information may be obtained at the Air Force Recruiting Office at 1319 1/2 Sartori St., Torrance, California or by calling FA 8-1404.

Pier Playhouse Presents Show

"I Am a Camera," three-act play by John Van Druten, adapted from "The Berlin Stories" of Christopher Isherwood, will appear as the second production in the newly re-opened Hermosa Pier Playhouse in Hermosa Beach.

Robert Chapline and Rick Winter, new managers of the theatre, have re-decorated the playhouse with an eye toward maximum audience enjoyment, and have created a new policy of "never a dark weekend" to insure a "first class little theatre facility in the area."

Friday, Aug. 12, is the official opening date for the next production, which will have a run for four weeks only, playing Thursday, Friday and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

Rick Winter and Rita Thompson will star in the Pier Playhouse production, the parts William Prince and Julie Harris did on Broadway.

Winter will portray an author who writes "The Berlin Stories," with Christopher Isherwood gathering impressions of pre-war Germany in 1939. The story is transferred later to the printed pages of several best sellers.

Rita Thompson will recreate the role of Sally, who, by her own admission, is "really rather a strange and extraordinary person."

Tickets to the production are on sale at the Hermosa Pier Playhouse for $1.50 each. Reservations may be obtained at FR 9-7887.
